

Advisory Council on Aging

In accordance with the Older Americans Act, the Contra Costa County Advisory Council on Aging (ACOA) is appointed by the Board of Supervisors to advise them on all matters associated with the planning, development and administration of programs relating to older adults. The ACOA is staffed by representatives of the Contra Costa County Area Agency on Aging (AAA). The ACOA consists of forty (40) members. Membership is determined by application and appointment. Fifty percent (50%) of the ACOA must be age 60 and above. The ACOA strives to represent or 'mirror' the diversity of the county's population with attention to the following factors: geography, economics, racial, cultural and ethnic origin, language, ability/disability, sexual orientation, and of course age. Seats on the ACOA fall under the following designations: city/local committees, members-at-large and one designated service organization. With few exceptions, the ACOA with its committees and work groups all meet monthly.

Local Committee Seats: Committees on aging/cities (19 seats): By city or local committee appointment.

Term: Two year staggered terms ending September 30.

Meeting Time and Location:

The ACOA meets on the third Wednesday of each month, 9:30 – 11:30 a.m. at 500 Ellinwood Way, Pleasant Hill in Board Rooms A&B.
